

Because meditation will tell me the purpose of my life and give me knowledge wisdom, strength to live for him, his purpose. If I live a life other than for which he destined and by ignorance I don't know the same, then my entire purpose of my life is lost. Because I am a small expression of him and accept his command and do accordingly to make my master happy and I feel there is no purpose in life except making my master happy all the time. If this is ego kindly pardon me sir, I will pray to master sir.
